DAYTON, Ohio, May 1, 1973 --- Dr. Wayne Carle, Superintendent of Schools, Dayton, speaks on the topic "Dayton Schools: Present and Future", Sunday, May 6, 7:30 P.M. in the Kennedy Union Ballroom at the University of Dayton.

Religion in Life, UD campus project assisting the community with insights on issues of concern to the general welfare of the area, has invited Dr. Carle to present his view of the school situation in this area and in the country generally. The public is invited to attend without cost and to ask questions of the speaker after he has made his presentation.

Co-sponsoring are Project SHARE and Metropolitan Churches United.

Professor Percy Vera of Sinclair College, teacher in the field of economics there, member of the Board of Religion in Life, will chair the session.

Rev. Gayle Poynter, Superintendent of Catholic Schools in the Dayton area; Mr. Chester A. Roush, Superintendent of the Kettering School system and Mr. Hugh C. Sauer, Superintendent of the Northridge schools will make a panel response to Dr. Carle's statement on Sunday, May 20, 7:30 P.M. in the Ballroom. The audience will be invited to respond in turn to their opinions after they have spoken. Professor Vera will also chair this session.

Project SHARE is a committee of over 400 citizens in Dayton who have come together out of their common interest in improving public education. They "share" their talents in working at the problem of developing a better school system in Dayton. Prof. Vera and Ruth Scheuer co-chair the organization at this time.

Metropolitan Churches United, Rev. Robert Kolze, United Church of Christ, presently heads this group which seeks to encourage various member churches to join forces in serving the needs of the community. Public education is one of these concerns.

Rev. William Cole, S.M., STD, is Chairman of Religion in Life at the University. Presently doing research in Stockholm, Sweden on the question of the Church's prudence and ability to make a quick and immediate decision on matters of conflict, war and peace, as they happen, he has asked Board Member Leo J. Murray, S.M., to replace him.

Fr. Poynter was principal of Catholic Central High School, Springfield, Ohio, prior to his present position. Ordained a priest of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati in 1951 he has served in educational capacities since then. His work in Dayton involves direction and assistance mainly to the elementary and secondary schools of the Catholic Church. His office is in the former Holy Trinity parish grade school.

Mr. Roush has been Superintendent of the Kettering schools for the past eight years. Prior to that he was Assistant Superintendent in the same system and teacher, coach and school administrator for 20 years before that.

Mr. Sauer has directed the Northridge schools as Superintendent for the past 6 years, serving as Assistant Superintendent for $3\frac{1}{2}$ years before his present service. He is a member of the area association of State and National Superintendents. President of the Metropolitan Dayton Education Cooperative Association.
